LOCAL MATTERS. FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 13.

For this sec ion continued cold, fair weather today and ta urday and probably cunday. SERIOUSLY CUT BY A TRAMP .- Shortly after nine o'clock last night, while Mr. Henry Baader, who intended taking the 9.20 train for Washington to meet some of his from Philadelphia, was wife's relatives standing on the platform at the local depot in this city, he was accosted by a tramp, who asked him for five cents. Mr. Baader told the man he hadn't five cents for him. The stranger grew angry at the refueal, and applying a very disgusting epithet to Mr. Bazder told him he should have five cents for him Upon being so grossly insulted, Mr. Bazder struck the tramp, knocking him down. The latter the tramp, knocking him down. The latter, however, soon regained his feet, and rushed upon his secations, when both clinebed and getting near the edge of the platform they fell, the tramp managing in the meantime to get on top, and while in that position drew a knife with which he made a murdercus cut on Mr. Baader's head, extending from the base of the skull Gibbon streets. around and through the left ear and cheek, and another into the left hand from the fingers to the write. A colored man named Lewis Smith, who witnessed the affray, pulled the stranger off Mr. Basder, but no attempt was made to arrest him, and after standing around a few minutes the tramp took an easterly direction and was soon out of sight. Upon it becoming known that Mr. Basder was seriously out the greatest excitement prevailed, and in a few minutes a large crowd had assembled. The injured man was taken to Mr. W. D. Hudeon's drug store, where Dr. Quackenbush was summond, who, assisted by Mr. H., dressed the wounds, after which Mr. Basder was taken to his home. The latter, after having been cut, bled profusely, the gore at the depot and in the drug store presenting a spectacle calculated to unnerve many. The news of the cutting soon reached police headquarters, when Lieutenant Emith, who divined that the stranger had proceeded toward Washington, telephoned to the authorities of that city has on the lock one for him, and after city to be on the lookout for him, and after having processed a buggs, in company with Officer Hayes, processed to that city. As soon as L'eut, Smith's message was received in Washing on Berg . Perry telephoned it to the different stations, and went to the depot and notified the officials on ourgoing trains to be on the lookout. Sergeant Barry and Private Perry, of the Fourth pre-cinct, went to Long Bridge, and about 11 chack went to Long Bridge, and about 11 o'clock taw their men coming at a rapid walk across that structure. When he reached the end he was arrested and taken to the Fourth precinct station, where a large kaife covered with blood was found in his pontet, and blood was also on his clothes. He did not attempt to dany that he was the man wanted, intended in ealf-defense. Twenty minutes after he was locked up Lieut. Smith and Officer Hayes reached Washington. They securely handreached Washington. They securely hand-cuffed the prisoner, who offered no resistance, and assisting him into the buggy started back to this city, and upon arriving here looked him up. This morning the tramp, who gave his name as John Conlow, of Richmond, was arraigned in the police court before Mayor Strees, when several witnesses were exemited. Their testimony in substance was as given above. low, in his statement this morning, said he had no intention of cutting Mr. Baader, and that the injurior the latter received were the result of the scufil; when the parties fell. Conlow was committed to jail for examination. He is a rather good-looking young man, not more than twenty-two years old, plainly dressed, and converses well. He
